SUPER TRUCK EXCURSIONS

SUPER TRUCK
IN ICELAND

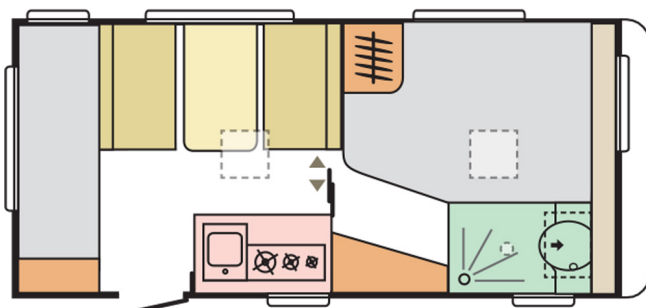

This Expedition Truck is the perfect vehicle for nature lovers, photographers, scientists, adventurers, Northern Lights seekers and everyone else who loves to travel differently and close to nature.

The cab of the Truck seats six people comfortably including the driver, and it can be converted to a bed with a mattress.

This former Fire Truck had the role of saving lives. Now it rejuvenates souls in the nature of Iceland.

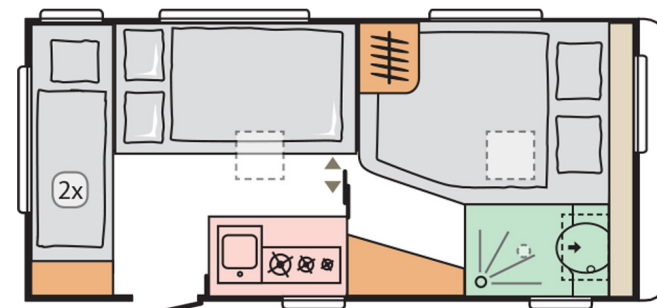

DAY MODE

The 4x4 Motorhome has all the luxuries of a home with a shower and toilet, hot and cold water, gas stove, fridge, heating, Bluetooth, USB and 220V connectors. There is one double bed and one bunk bed (with two single beds).

NIGHT MODE

There is also the option of converting the table into a cot. Being fully equipped, enables overnight stays far away from the beaten track and civilization, in remote camp sites, surrounded by Iceland's astounding landscapes.

With an experienced local driver you have the opportunity to discover the fantastic and diverse Icelandic landscape.

You can enjoy and explore the remote Highlands and the diversity of the countryside on an Excursion in Iceland.

Such Tours are especially well suited for families and friends.

Clients can also bring their own All Wheel Drive Motorhome Trucks to Iceland to join Convoy Tours, lead by locals!
